Benefits of Giving to United Way of San Joaquin County

#1 Local Most dollars stay local in San Joaquin County

#2 Stewardship United Way of San Joaquin ensures each contribution is directed to programs that are efficient and demonstrate measurable results. Additionally, each year United Way staff and volunteers analyze all agency budgets, audits, tax forms and then visits each agency to see programs in action first hand ... all to ensure donor's dollars are spent where the needs are greatest and will have the most impact.

#3 Accountability United Way of San Joaquin County maintains the highest level of accountability to ensure compliance with state, federal, local and non-profit standards.

#4 Efficiency The local United Way provides services for San Joaquin County with a total staff of five employees. Additionally, they save the non-profit community thousands of hours in administrative dollars allowing agencies to concentrate on providing services instead of fundraising all year long.

#5 Impact The local United Way is the best way to make the most difference for the most people and be assured contributions are being used wisely. Outside of government, United Way is the largest provider of funds and services currently totaling over $1.1 million annually.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROUS DONATION TO OUR COMMUNITY!

Note: United Way of San Joaquin County will deduct a minimum of 15% processing fee from your designated pledge.

IRS Notification: United Way of San Joaquin does not provide goods or services in whole or partial consideration for any contributions made to it by payroll deduction.
